

XXXIV REFRESHER COURSE IN EXPERIMENTAL PHYSICS

Sponsored by

INDIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES, BANGALORE
INDIAN NATIONAL SCIENCE ACADEMY, NEW DELHI
AND
THE NATIONAL ACADEMY OF SCIENCES, INDIA, ALLAHABAD

This thirty-fourth Course will be held from 2 to 17 December 2011, at its premises in Bangalore. Participants in this course will gain hands-on experience with about 25 experiments, some at the B.Sc. level and some at the M.Sc. level with a low cost kit developed for the Indian Academy of Sciences, Bangalore, and manufactured by Ajay Sensors and Instruments, Bangalore. It is likely that some advanced experiments in tracking phase transitions and in low temperature physics will be included in the course.

Refresher Courses in Experimental Physics held so far have been highly successful and the experiments have been included in the curricula of about 20 universities in the South. About eighty kits have been sold and are used in universities and other high level institutions like the Centre for Excellence in Basic Sciences of the University of Mumbai and TIFR.

The total number of seats in the Course will be about 25; while the course is essentially meant for teachers in universities and colleges, a few seats will be available for students of III B.Sc. and I M.Sc. Physics courses.

Interested applicants must send their detailed bio-data including name, sex, date of birth, educational qualifications, office address, mobile, telephone number and e-mail address and (in the case of faculty) teaching and research experience including a statement as to why they would like to attend the course and its usefulness to their career. The application should be sent to
