The Chevening Rolls-Royce Science and Innovation Leadership Programme 2012

Do you see yourself as a future leader in Science and Innovation?

If so, the Chevening Rolls-Royce Science and Innovation Leadership Programme presents a remarkable and challenging opportunity at the Saïd Business School, University of Oxford to explore innovation and science policy, from an academic, practical and a personal perspective.

The Foreign and Commonwealth Office and Rolls-Royce offer this eleven week fully funded scholarship in India. The ideal candidate should be a mid-career government, science or media professional with leadership potential and experience in any of the following or similar disciplines: research, technology, manufacturing, business development, or business and public administration.

Applications are open till 5 December 2011

The course will run from April to July 2012
