

G. B. Pant Institute of Himalayan Environment and Development

Kosi-Kafarmal, Almora 263 643

Applications are invited for the following positions in the project on 'Application of biotechnology in Conservation and Improvement of Himalayan Threatened Plant Species' (BIOTECH-2) funded by the Department of Biotechnology, Government of India.

1. Scientist-C/Senior Research Officer (One):

Candidates holding a master's degree in 1st Division and having 10 years experience in relevant field, a doctorate degree or equivalent with consistently good academic record and not exceeding 40 years of age are eligible to apply.

Specialization:	Biotechnology/Plant Biochemistry/Plant Population Genetics
Desirable:	Knowledge of high altitude plants
Emoluments:	Rs 3700-5000

2. Research Associate (One):

Candidates holding a doctorate degree or equivalent with consistently good academic record and not exceeding 35 years of age are eligible to apply.

Specialization:	Plant Taxonomy/Biogeography/Autecology
Desirable:	Knowledge of high altitude plants
Emoluments:	Rs 2200-100-2700 + HRA
Tenure of project:	Three years

The headquarters of the project positions are at Kosi (Almora) and Srinagar (Garhwal). Desirous candidates may apply to the Principal Investigator (Biotech-2), G. B. Pant Institute of Himalayan Environment and Development, Kosi, Almora 263 643, UP. The applicants should give their full particulars about personal details, qualifications, experience, etc. The application must reach The Principal Investigator (Biotech-2) within 20 days of the publication of this advertisement.