

Map India '98

India's Largest Conference and Exhibition on GIS/GPS/Remote Sensing

7-9 October 1998, New Delhi, India

Keynote presentations

Dr Joe Astroth, VP, Autodesk Inc., USA
Mark Gunn, VP, Marketing, MapInfo Inc., USA

User Conference

The much awaited MapInfo User Conference

Workshops

- GIS Applications for Mining By Autodesk
- Remote Sensing Data and its Applications by NRSA
- Basics of Mapping and GIS by NATMO

Special User Oriented Sessions on GIS/GPS applications in

- Telecom • Power • Urban Planning • Natural Resources Management • Intelligence Service • Business Geographics

Participation of Key Decision Makers

- Union Minister for Coal, Mr Dilip Ray will deliver a Plenary Address
- Union Minister for Environment and Forests Mr Suresh Prabhu will inaugurate Session on Pride of India Presentations
- Secretary, Ministry of Science and Technology, Ministry of Mines, Industrial Development
 - CMD's and other senior officials from many Public Sector Units
- International Marketing Managers/Technical Directors of every major product vendor from all over the world

Pride of India Presentations

- NNRMS (National Natural Resource Management System) by ISRO
- NRDMS (Natural Resource Data Management System) by DST
 - NRIS (National Resource Information System) by SAC

Panel Discussions

- Data Scarcity in GIS: What is the way out?
- GIS Industry in India: When will the sun shine?

Exhibition

- GIS • GPS • Remote Sensing • Cartography • Photogrametry • AM/FM

Venue

- Jamia Hamdard University Convention Center, New Delhi

For more information/confirmation contact:

Map India '98 Secretariat

P-82, Sector-XI, NOIDA 210 310 (U.P.) India. Tel: 530 014, Telefax: 555 751, Fax: 525 049,
(STD Code: 0118)