

Professor K. K. Balasubramanian's 60th Birthday Felicitations

Professor K. K. Balasubramanian, FNA, FASc (Indian Institute of Technology, Madras) is one of the active scientists of our country who has dedicated himself to the cause of chemical education and research for more than three decades.

To mark the occasion of Prof. Balasubramanian's sixtieth birthday, his former students have proposed to hold a felicitations function at IIT-Madras during 2 and 3 September 2000, accompanied by a scientific programme, "Milestones in Synthetic and Mechanistic Organic Chemistry: An International Symposium" – (for details, please consult the website or contact the organizing committee).

We welcome contributors towards conducting the felicitations function-symposium and eventually establishing an endowment in honour of Prof. K. K. Balasubramanian. Payment, preferably by way of a/c payee demand draft in favour of Prof. K. K. Balasubramanian's 60th Birthday Felicitations Fund payable at Chennai (Madras), may be sent to the Joint-Secretary, Organizing Committee.

We propose to list our corporate sponsors in a separate page of the website www.kkb60.com so as to highlight their commitment to this cause (for details, please visit the website or contact the organizing committee).
