

APOLLO HOSPITALS

HYDERABAD

Apollo Hospitals, Hyderabad, requires

Head Molecular Diagnostics Lab

A Ph.D. in a Molecular Biology field (Genetics, Bio-technology etc.). M. D. with research experience may also apply. Candidates with an excellent track-record, a high degree of initiative and ambition – with interests that go beyond the area of expertise. Willing to work full-time.

Please send a detailed CV (with details of your publications) immediately to:

Dr. Swarnalata G
Dept. of Anatomical Pathology
Apollo Hospitals
Jubilee Hills, Hyderabad 500 033.
Tel: 040-460 7777; Fax: 040-360 8050

Department of Zoology, Thiagarajar College, Madurai

Applications are invited for Research Positions to work in a Department of Science & Technology (DST), Government of India funded Project on 'Preparation of Acridid Species File (Acrididae: Orthoptera: Insecta) in relation to DNA Patterns'.

(1) Junior Research Fellow: One

NET Qualification/First Class M.Sc., in Zoology/Entomology/Biotechnology/Biochemistry/Life Science.

Emoluments (consolidated): Rs. 8000/- per month for NET qualified and Rs. 5500/- per month for Non-NET candidates.

Desirable: Knowledge/Skills in Insect Rearing and Basic Biotechnological techniques.

(2) Field Assistant: One

A graduate in Life Science.

Desirable: Skills in insect collection and rearing.

Emoluments (consolidated): Rs. 1200/- per month (likely to be revised after the approval from DST).

Duration of the Project: Three years (November 2002 to October 2005)

Eligible candidates may send their applications to Dr. P. Suresh, Principal Investigator, DST Project, Centre for Insect Science, PG & Research Department of Zoology, Thiagarajar College (Autonomous), Madurai 625 009 on or before 31 October 2002.