2006 SASTRA RAMANUJAN PRIZE

Call for Nominations

The Shanmugha Arts, Science, Technology, Research Academy (SASTRA), a Deemed University based in Thanjavur, Tamil Nadu has instituted the SASTRA Ramanujan Prize of $10,000 to be given annually to a mathematician not exceeding the age of 32 for outstanding contributions in an area of mathematics influenced by the late Indian mathematical genius Srinivasa Ramanujan. The age limit has been set at 32 because Ramanujan achieved so much in his brief life of 32 years.

Nominations are invited for the 2006 SASTRA Ramanujan Prize. The winner will be invited to give a talk at the International Conference on Number Theory and Combinatorics organized by SASTRA from 19–22 December 2006, and receive the prize.

Nominations for the 2006 SASTRA Ramanujan Prize must be made by 15 August 2006. A panel of experts will select the winner from the nominations. The announcement of the winner is expected around 30 September. The person making the nomination must assemble the vita of the nominee, some selected papers, and three letters supporting the nomination and send these to:

SASTRA Ramanujan Prize, Department of Mathematics, University of Florida, Gainesville, FL 32611, USA or to sastraprize@math.ufl.edu
